

MARK SHIRTLIFF BIOFILM FOUNDATION

Goal:
Expand the boundaries of knowledge of biofilms through a world-wide exchange of ideas and research. Focus will be on Early Career Researchers and mentoring

Donations to the Mark Shirliff Biofilm Foundation

Foundation activities:

Support of Early Career Researchers via mentoring and education

Engaging in community and scientific activities for the advancement of knowledge in the field of biofilms

Raising funds for education and travel for activities incl. research visits and conference presentations

Board of Trustees:

Birthe V. Kjellerup, President
Kendra Rumbaugh, Vice President
Garth D. Ehrlich, Secretary & Treasurer

James Kaper, Member
Zhenbo Xu, Member
Annette Moter, Member

SAVE THE DATE: March 31, 2023

2nd Shirliff Biofilm Day: 'Building your biofilm community'

A full day of biofilm talks and networking including sessions on:

- Biofilms in a clinical setting
- Industrial and Entrepreneurial biofilms
- Biofilms seen from a government perspective
- Biofilms and academia

Location: University of Maryland, College Park

Program: Presentations and networking from 9 AM to 5 PM

Registration fees will be donated to the Foundation

If you cannot attend, please feel free to donate directly to the Foundation via <https://markshirliffbiofilmfoundation.org/>.

Speakers from the 1st Shirliff Biofilm Day in Baltimore, February 27, 2020